E. STAFF REPORT

Krissi Oden, Community & Cultural Arts Programs Manager, gave an arts update. Gerault Park mural is finished. A reception will be planned in coming months. The town is partnering with MSU for the "Flower Mound has heART" project beginning with a collaborative mural by community groups to be displayed at Parker Square. The mural will be painted at the Art in the Park Festival on May 8. Submissions for mural consideration are due by April 9. Art in the Park will include music, dance, theater, a disc golf clinic, and 25+ art vendors. The new Town Hall Artist is installing their woodworking art early next month.

Sue Ridnour, Director of Library Services, brought the Commission members up to date on the Library. The new Administrative Assistant has started at the Library. The renovated Library held a socially distanced ribbon cutting on Nov. 4. Library visits are down, but check-outs have increased. 2020 accomplishments included: completing a patron satisfaction survey, adding a new teen non-fiction section, creating a collection of Hindi books, completed a collection inventory, adding a new marketing tool, and align with Every Child Ready to Read standards. The Library will have an outreach booth at the upcoming Art in the Park Festival. The Summer Reading Program is from June 1 – July 31. The Library hopes to host a combination of virtual and in-person programming in the fall. Library patios are now open for public use.
